Naga Insurgency

*388. SHRI O. P. KOHLI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that forced by the Centre's neglect of Nagaland since Independence, the Naga insurgents have taken recourse to armed struggle against it and at present the State is virtually under their control;

(b) whether it is f fact that policemen are paying 25 per cent of their salary to insurgents; and

(c) if so, the steps taken to remove the genuine grievances of the Naga insurgents and to bring them into the mainstream?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI INDRAJIT GUPTA): (a) No, Sir.

(b) There are no confirmed reports suggesting that policemen are paying 25 per cent of their salary to insurgents.

(c) In order to meet the genuine aspirations of the Naga people, negotiations were held with Naga leaders and as a result of the accord, the Central Government had enacted the State of Nagaland Act, 1962 creating a separate State of Nagaland. In view of the poor resource base of the state, it has been given the status of a Special Category State for the purpose of receiving Central Plan Assistance. Most of its Non-Plan expenditure also continues to be met by the Central Government. The Plan outlay has increased from Rs. 7.15 crores during the third Plan (1961-66) to Rs. 844 crores for the Eighth Plan (1992-97). The Annual Plan allocation for 1996-97 has been approved at Rs. 290 crores. In addition, the North-Eastern Council (NEC), which was set-up in 1971, has also taken-up several development projects/schemes in Nagaland. The North East Zonal Cultural Centre (NEZCC) is located at Dimapur. A separate University of Nagaland has also been established in 1995. The Prime Minister after his recent visit to the North Eastern States has also announced several new intiatives including specific development projects in Nagaland, and an offer to meet the insurgent leaders to hear their point of view.

Protection walls for coastal land
